THE CITY OF OAKLAND.

This, the second city in population west of the Rocky Mountains, is located on the Bay of San Francisco, northwardly from the mouth of San Antonio creek. Its area extends on the eastward to the foot-hills of the San Pablo range of mountains. On the north, Temescal and Berkeley lie as immediately contiguous suburbs, soon to be absorbed within the limits of the rapidly expanding city. Piedmont and Fruit Vale eastwardly, and Alameda on the south, are parts of the future great city which shall cover the entire space from the bay to the hills, and which, in population and wealth, shall rank among the first on the continent.

The town of Oakland was incorporated in 1852, and so rapid was its growth that it became a city in 1854, with a population variously estimated at from one thousand to fifteen hundred. Latterly the growth of the city has been very rapid. The many natural advantages which she possesses, her charming scenery and delightful climate, her excellent educational facilities, her easy and rapid communication with the present commercial metropolis, and above all, her almost certain prospect, in the near future, of becoming a great commercial and manufacturing mart, all have combined to give an impetus to her growth which is simply unparalleled. On other pages will be found references to the varied institutions of the city, and details of interest concerning real estate and building transactions for the year.

Oakland justly claims to be the natural railroad center of California. This claim is not disputed, and its admittal brings with it the correlative one that she is the natural commercial center. With the necessary improvements in her harbor, which the judicious expenditure of a moderate sum will perfect, the commerce of the coast can find as commodious and less exposed anchorage at her wharves than at the opposite side. If the tardy appropriation of a few thousand dollars annually by the national government, for the improvement of the harbor, were to be supplemented by a generous one of say a million dollars by the large real estate owners on this side, the work could be speedily completed, and a return of tenfold the investment be made to the donors by the vast rise in real estate which the transfer of the commerce of the Pacific to her wharves would immediately cause.
Improvements.

Since the last issue of the "Directory," we note a great change in the appearance of Oakland. Where shanties stood and encumbered the grounds, substantial business houses or elegant residences have been erected. Streets which were supposed, even by the most sanguine, to be sacred to the uses of the domestic circle, and not at all likely to be encroached upon by the inexorable law, which says "trade overrides all things," have been invaded, the occupants driven out and forced to seek homes elsewhere, always, however to the great advantage of the owner. What was residence property is no longer, and what is residence property is a question of uncertainty. "Business centres" are being established all over the city. Center-street Station is a most noticeable instance. Kohler's Block, a two-story structure, with several stores below, occupies the northern side of Seventh street, between Chester and Henry, while on the opposite side of Seventh, upon that and the two contiguous blocks not less than a dozen stores have been opened, filled with various wares, embracing all the lines of retail trade. On Eighth and Chester, all of the four corners have been built up and first-class establishments opened.

At the "Point," thirty-six new buildings, devoted to the uses of retailers, have been erected and occupied.

Adeline-street Station shows much improvement, a number of substantial two-story houses having been built and occupied for business purposes, while a large number of residences have been erected.

At Market-street Station the Messrs. Abbott have built two first class stores on Seventh, and Mr. Curtis is erecting a block of large dimensions. All the diminutive, shabby structures are to disappear from that neighborhood.

San Pablo avenue has improved rapidly. Not less than seventy buildings have been erected on it within the year.

The opening of Grove street, through "Chinatown," will make that a great thoroughfare, and the corners of Twenty-sixth and Grove and Thirty-fourth and Grove are likely to become business centres.

Improvements in East Oakland are on a scale commensurate with the growth of the city. Elegant private residences are being constructed, together with many cottages of more moderate cost.

Out on Thirty-fourth, B and Haven streets, a business centre is springing up. The Watt's tract is being rapidly covered with stores and dwellings. One hundred and fifty houses have been erected on that tract which came into market last Fall since the last issue of this work.

Substantial Business Structures.—During the year 1876 buildings for business purposes were erected in the City of Oakland of a value approximating one million dollars. Among the most prominent are the following: The Nicholl Block, fronting on Ninth street 150 feet by 100 on Washington, cost $70,000. The Oakland Bank of Savings Block fronting on Broadway, side elevation on Twelfth, a brick building, three stories in height, with basement, costing $50,000. A three-story brick building fronting on Twelfth, between Broadway and Washington, built by Mrs. Deming, at an estimated cost of $33,000. The Block fronting on Washington and Ninth, one hundred feet by eighty, three stories, of brick, cost $50,000. A three-story brick building 100 by 75 feet, on the corner of Seventh and Washington, by P. Bocquerez, administrator, Adeline Curdy owner. This block cost fully $40,000. The Jurgen's Building on Broadway and Thirteenth. This is an elegant three-story and basement brick structure, fronting 100 feet on Broadway and 100 feet on Thirteenth, costing $65,000. White & Glenn's Block, on Broadway and Thirteenth streets, fronting 100 feet on Broadway and 100 on Thirteenth. This building is of stone, brick and iron, and cost about $37,000. Snyder's Block, fronting on Ninth, at the southeast corner of Washington. This building is of brick, is three stories in height, and cost $30,000. F. Delger's Block, on Broadway, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, containing eleven spacious stores. This building is a one-story and basement of brick and iron, erected upon a substantial foundation calculated to support two or three additional stories. Its cost was $30,000. George C. Potter's Block, at the intersection of Broadway with San Pablo avenue at Fourteenth street. This is a two-story structure, built with all the appliances of modern architectural skill; contains ten stores, with basements, and cost about $50,000. Mechanics' Association Block, at the intersection of Broadway with Telegraph avenue. A portion of this block is three stories in height, and the remainder two stories, all with basements of brick and stone, the superstructure being of wood with brick subdivision walls. The block contains ten stores, and about sixty upper rooms. Its cost was about $50,000. Teutonia Hall, on the north side of eighth between Broadway and Franklin, is a two-story brick structure, costing about $12,000. Buhsen's brick building, two stories in height, on Seventh street, at the Point Station, cost $15,000. Dunn's building on Twelfth street, east of Broadway, of brick, two stories, cost $15,000.

Public Buildings.—Among the more prominent buildings of a public character erected during 1876, we may mention the ferry buildings of the Central Pacific Railroad, at the foot of Broadway; cost unknown, but probably about $50,000. The First Methodist Episcopal Church, corner Clay and Fourteenth streets, completed, cost $40,000. The Church of the Seventh Day Adventists, corner Clay and Thirteenth streets, cost $10,500. A brick Engine house on East Fourteenth and Thirteenth avenue, $6000. A brick Engine house at Oakland Point, on Eighth street between Campbell and Willow, $3500. The Masonic Hall of West Oakland, corner Seventh and Willow streets, cost $15,000. The Odd Fellows' Hall, Orion Lodge, East Twelfth street and Eleventh avenue, $6000, besides a number of others of lesser note.

Additions and enlargements to the several manufacturing establishments of the city have been made at an estimated cost of $50,000.

Dwellings.—One thousand one hundred and fifty-six dwelling houses were erected within the limits of the City of Oakland during the year, and above two hundred in the outlying suburban districts. The range of cost of these dwelling is from $15,000 to $400; very few so low as the latter figure and but a limited number approximating the former. A very large proportion, however, ranged from $1500 to $3000 each, with a good sprinkling of eighth, nine and ten thousand dollar mansions and villas. Of cottages costing not far from a thousand dollars each, there were built about four hundred. Personal interviews and comparison of notes, with all the leading architects, builders, and real estate improvers of the city have led us to place the cost value of residences erected during the year 1876 at two million three hundred and twenty thousand dollars, exclusive of ornamentations of grounds.

In addition to the prominent business structures noticed above, there were built one hundred and twenty-seven stores and shops (mostly of wood) in various parts of the city at a probable cost of $90,000. Summary: The result of one year's building operation in Oakland may be summarized thus:

The Present and Future.

As great as was the growth of Oakland in 1876, appearances indicate that a larger number of houses will be built during the present year than last. In whatever direction we look we observe new structures springing up, not exactly as by magic in a night, but with a celerity that approaches it. The Watts' tract is becoming rapidly covered with cottages and shops. A large number of elegant residences are in course of construction in the vicinity of Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Jefferson and Grove streets, and improvements in the vicinity of all the stations of the local railway are exceedingly brisk. Not less than five hundred houses, of various classes, have been commenced since the opening of the year. The hard times generally complained of seems to stimulate the investment of surplus capital in property that cannot fail to be profitable, and is undeniably safe. It was asserted by a prominent house owner to the writer of this, that large buildings combining stores beneath, with ample and numerous rooms for residence, office or lodging purposes above, were remunerative even if all the stores remained unrented, such was the demand for and certainty of occupancy of the upper floors.

All the numerous architects of the city have their portfolios filled with plans for large business structures or costly residences, many of which are designed for San Francisco capitalists, who show the recognition of an undoubted faith in the future of Oakland by building here in preference to San Francisco. It is probable that some of these extensive contemplated improvements may be delayed by the present depreciation in mining shares, but the delay will be only temporary, and will tend in time to results much greater than if stocks had been held up to excessive and fabulous prices, subject to disastrous fluctuations. The solid business men of both cities are becoming fully aware that one of the most populous cities of the United States is to be builded, and very rapidly too, between the waters of San Francisco Bay and the San Pablo range of hills, and are governing themselves accordingly.

Among a few of the improvements contemplated and in progress at the present, are Kohler & Chase's three story brick block, on the corner of Washington and Ninth streets. This building will be fifty by one hundred feet, with basement, and will be constructed in the most substantial manner. The estimated cost is fifty thousand dollars.

Dr. Samuel Merritt is building, on the corner of Twelfth and Franklin streets, a building which, when completed, will be one of the largest and most magnificent business structures in the city. It is one hundred feet square, and will be three stories in height above a spacious basement. There are few buildings in any of our Western cities that excel in size, design and cost this progressing block. The cost is estimated at from one hundred thousand to one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars.

The Germania Association are proceeding rigorously in the construction of a magnificent building, to be known as Germania Halle. It is located on the east side of Webster street, between Sixth and Seventh. The building will be of wood, three stories in height, above a basement of brick, its ground dimensions being seventy-five front by one hundred and thirty feet in depth. Its cost will not be far from forty thousand dollars, and it will be the largest hall of a similar nature in the State.

Greens' Block, on Broadway, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets, will be fifty feet front by a depth of one hundred, will be of brick, iron and stone, fire-proof, four stories in height and will cost about forty-five thousand dollars.

An elegant building fronting fifty feet on Twelfth street, with a depth of one hundred feet will be erected A. Martin. It will be three stories high, and its estimated cost is thirty thousand dollars.

A. C. Henry, Esq., the banker, has in a forward state of progress a substantial brick block seventy-five feet front by ninety feet in depth, on Ninth street, between Broadway and Washington. The front walls of this massive structure will be fifty-five feet high. The building is of brick with basement, is three stories and will cost about forty thousand dollars.

J. L. Wetmore, a prominent real estate dealer, of Oakland, will build an immense three story frame, ninety feet by one hundred, on the corner of Eighth and Clay streets, at a cost of twenty-five thousand dollars.

In addition to the above list a large number of business houses of more moderate dimensions are in progress.

From a general view of the ground and personal interviews with the principal builders and dealers in building materials of the city, it is without hesitation that we place the probable cost of building improvements in Oakland at a figure not lower than three millions and five hundred thousand dollars for the current year ending with the advent of 1878.
Real Estate.

Oakland is to day the campaign ground for real estate operation on the Pacific Coast. Greater activity prevails both in business and residence property here than in any other city on the coast, not excepting San Francisco. We might say also, if the saying may not seem to savor of the spirit of boasting, that no city within the broad expanse of the United States can show such growth, and such substantial appreciation of values as Oakland, during a period dating back one, two or three years. Especially during 1876, a season of general depression in real estate on the Pacific Coast, did Oakland not only maintain but largely enhance her values both for business and residence property.

It will be seen that the sales for 1876 exceed those of 1874 and 1875 combined, and more than equal those of any three years previous to 1874 aggregated. During the same period the real estate sales of San Francisco amounted to $24,000,000. This shows that the volume of transactions in Oakland is one-third as large as that of the great commercial metropolis of the Pacific coast. At its present ratio of development but a few years will pass before the real estate sales of Oakland will exceed those of the peninsula.

It will be of interest to our readers to observe, from the authority of a reliable real estate firm, the actual prices of real estate in open market in various locations at the present writing. To those who preserve copies of this Directory from year to year it may be of value and certainly will be of interest in future years to glance backward, take a retrospective view and make comparisons. The figure which Oakland real estate brings in the market now may ten years hence appear exceedingly small, as the figures of ten years ago now appear to the reviewer. In the year of our Lord 1877 the choicest business property in Oakland will sell for eight hundred dollars per front foot. Corner lots fronting on Broadway between Seventh and Fourteenth streets are regarded as the choicest and most valuable property. The constant throng which passing to and from the local trains at short intervals from morn till noon, from noon till dewy eve, and from that time on till midnight renders Broadway the paradise of retailers. The ground upon which a corner store of twenty-five feet frontage stands in this locality therefore commands twenty thousand dollars, equivalent to a ground rent of two thousand dollars per annum. However, there are locations here which cannot be purchased for any sum within the reasonable limits of its present or prospective value.

Next in the scale of value for purposes of trade comes Washington street. The best lots on this rapidly improving thoroughfare command about $325 per front foot. Many fine improvements were made on Washington street last year and many others are in progress. It is beginning to divide the vast crowd from the trains with Broadway. It is really more agreeable and convenient for dwellers out north to take Washington street. Its property has rapidly enhanced in value of late in consequence of the frequently uncomfortably crowded condition of Broadway, and the opening of several new establishments of retail trade on Washington. Clay street property, choice corners, command $150 perfront foot.

A lot on Broadway, at the corner of First street, 60 feet front, sold at the rate of $541.66 per front foot, including improvements worth probably two-fifths of the amount. This sale is mentioned to illustrate the relative estimation in which property suitable only for commercial or manufacturing purposes is held when compared with that suitable for the retail trade.

Business property at the Point sells at $100 per front foot for the best lots. At Market street station about the same prices are realized as at the Point. At Center street station property is a little lower, though the best lots are rapidly appreciating in value. No part of the city has grown more rapidly of late than in this vicinity, business extending to Eighth street. Adeline street station property does not command so high a figure—$60 to $75 per front foot will buy the best lots in that vicinity.

Property in the vicinity of Broadway upon the cross streets, from Eighth to Tenth, commands $200 to $250 per front foot; as we proceed to the northward prices growing smaller.

Residence property that may be considered in the least eligible, sells at from $75 to $100 per foot for first-class in the most central or the most desirable locations, and from $20 to $75, according to location, in various parts of the city. Low-lying, undesirable lots may, in some instances, be bought at $10 per foot. Among notable sales made recently were the Peralta and Center street lands, lying between the above named streets and Twelfth and Sixteenth streets, comprising seventy-six lots, every one of which was sold at prices varying from $1,015 to $400, the entire tract bringing $43,045. An offer of $55,000 was refused for a business block bounded by Market, Myrtle, Seventh and Eighth, without improvements. At the sale of the Potter property the sum of $165,375 was realized. Three hundred and ten feet on Telegraph avenue sold at an average of $216 per foot. Lots on the San Pablo frontage brought $175 per foot. The sale was considered one of the most successful which ever took place in Oakland, considering the times.

The Oak Park tract in Alameda, lying between Fassking's Gardens and the Bay, and comprising about twenty blocks, is considered as among the desirable residence property for the more select class. Lots in that tract have sold during the season at prices ranging from $500 to $1,000. This locality is rapidly becoming covered with a fine class of residences.

The Watts tract, lying between the Bay and San Pablo avenue in the northerly section of the city, was subdivided and sold during the season. A remarkable growth is evident in that section, which offers the cheapest residence property now available. More than one hundred and thirty houses have been erected on that ground since the sale, and new ones are going up every day.

The Brumagin tract, situated a little northward of Temescal, has lately come into market. This tract is situated on a very desirable elevation above the Bay, some ninety feet—has a splendid drainage, and is altogether a lovely spot upon which to create homes. At the sale fifty lots were sold at prices ranging from $275 to $400.

The Rowland tract, which lies between Telegraph and San Pablo avenues southward of Thirty-fourth street, lies high and affords a good view. Streets have been graded through this land, and lots are for sale, but purchasers must expect to pay high prices there.

The Shell Mound tract, at the head of the creek, has been settled upon to a considerable extent during the season.

Several other tracts of outside lots have been opened for purchase during the year, and are as a consequence being rapidly dotted over with habitations.

Fruit Vale on the eastward, and Piedmont, are suburbs, are noted for their picturesque scenery and healthfulness.
Both are improving gradually. The first school building, an elegant one, was built at Piedmont during the summer of 1876. A number of fine residences were built at Fruit Vale. In this section land can yet be purchased by the acre, in tracts to suit.
The general tendency of improvements is to the northward. Ere long every acre of land between the Bay and the hills northward to Berkeley will be in the market as city lots, and will be rapidly disposed of to the army of seekers for cheap, healthful and picturesque homes.

Population of the City.

Thirty-five thousand was accepted as a correct estimate of the population of Oakland in June, 1876. The number of children in the city at that time was 8,745, or about twenty-five per cent. of the total population. Thus, in 1870, the School census gave 2,592 children and the Federal census 10,000 inhabitants to the city. The gain in the number of children for the last four years has been twenty per cent. annually; that ratio of gain from June, 1876 to June, 1877, will give a return of 10,497 children, indicating a population of 41,976. But it is a patent fact, that the enumeration of children, of late years, is often taken in a careless manner, resulting in the omission of a considerable number of names. The population of Oakland is undoubtedly larger than the figures indicated by the School census, for two reasons: First, all the children are not returned; second, there are, at least, fifteen hundred men residing in the city, engaged upon the hundreds of new buildings, who have no families here, and consequently no children to be returned.

A more reliable basis than the School census, upon which to estimate the population, is the present volume. This work being published annually, and containing the names of all adult males and heads of families, affords an excellent means of determining the growth of the city by comparison. The best judges, in fact, authorities almost indisputable, allot a population of three and one-half to each reference in the Directories of Western cities. Upon this basis we estimated the population in June, 1876, at 35,910, there being 10,260 references in the book. This year the references in the book number 13,050, an increase of 2,790. The population is, therefore, 45,675, an increase of 9,765 since June, 1876. Newspapers and pamphlets have been too moderate in estimating the number of inhabitants in this bustling, crowded city. This volume shows, beyond a doubt, an increase of fully twenty-five per cent. since the date of our last issue, one year ago; and after a careful and exhaustive comparison of facts, we have no hesitancy in claiming that our figures are conservative and within the bounds of actual fact. An official census would hardly vary them one thousand.

County Infirmary.

Embraces 127 acres, four miles from San Leandro. It is designed for the care of the sick poor and for the aged and infirm. C. S. Coleman, Physician; Frederick Gerstenberg, Steward. The number of admissions in 1876 was 212; 164 were discharged, and there were 39 deaths. The number of patients remaining on January 1, 1877, was 67. The total current expenses for the year were $17,579 22, and $4,914 91 were paid for improvements.
THE MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT OF THE CITY OF OAKLAND.

By an Act passed at the last session of the Legislature the ward subdivisions of the city were materially altered. Oakland has now seven wards. We give the boundaries as established by the new law.

First Ward—Comprises all that portion of the city lying west of Adeline street.

Second Ward—Comprises all that portion of the city lying north of Twentieth street, and north of Delger street and east of Adeline street.

Third Ward—Comprises all that portion of the city lying east of Adeline street, south of Twentieth and Delger streets, west of Broadway street and north of Tenth street.

Fourth Ward—Comprises all that portion of the city lying west of Broadway street, south of Tenth street and north of the southerly Charter line of the City of Oakland.

Fifth Ward—Comprises all that portion of the city lying east of Broadway street, south of Twentieth and Delger streets, north of Tenth street and west of the line which divides Oakland township from Brooklyn township.

Sixth Ward—Comprises all that portion of the city lying east of Broadway street and south of Tenth street.

Seventh Ward—Comprises all that portion of the city lying in Brooklyn township, now known and designated as East Oakland.

A general election was held on the second Monday of March, 1877, at which all members of the City Council and School Board and other city officers except the Mayor, who is elected every year, were elected, to serve for two years, without pay.

OAKLAND FIRE DEPARTMENT.

It is not necessary to follow the history of the Oakland Fire Department from its inception to its regeneration and permanent establishment. — Matthew De La Montanya was appointed chief engineer in 1874, and still occupies the position. The service has been brought to a good state of efficiency.

A Fire Alarm Telegraph, with twenty miles of wire, has been recently constructed, and eleven automatic fire boxes provided, which number will soon be largely increased. A gong of enormous sounding power has also been placed in the engine house of Phoenix No. 1 and of Felton No. 2.

George H. Carleton Superintendent of Fire and Police Telegraph.

The city is now the owner of four engine houses and four lots, viz: A brick engine house on the north side of Sixth street, between Broadway and Washington, built in 1875, accommodating the Felton and Hook and Ladder companies; a house and lot on Fifteenth near Washington, occupied by Phoenix Company No. 1; a lot, with house newly completed thereon of brick one story in height, on Eighth street, between Willow and Campbell, West Oakland; a brick house in East Oakland, on East Fourteenth street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth avenues, occupied by Brooklyn Company No. 4.
Companies.

$28,903.43

The total value of Department property, per inventory, is $60,133.77.
MUNICIPAL FINANCES.

It is a source of gratification to be able to publish the fact that the financial affairs of the city of Oakland are prudently and honestly managed. The rate of taxation is low, and funds raised by taxes or the sale of bonds are applied strictly to the purposes designed. Tax-payers, therefore, enjoy the satisfaction of receiving something tangible for their contributions. They can see honestly constructed public buildings and street improvements, and enjoy the benefits a well governed and orderly community bestows. Following are the receipts from all sources for 1876 per report of the City Treasurer:

City taxes ........................................... $218,501 96
General trader’s licenses .......................... 35,321 50
Vehicle licenses ................................... 545 00
Dog licenses ........................................ 1,242 00
Police Court ....................................... 6,788 95
City Wharf ......................................... 10,109 88

Total revenue proper ............................. $272,509 29
Received from sale of bonds (sewer) .......... 8,084 00
Received school moneys from State and county. 55,951 03

Total receipts from all sources .................. $336,544 32

Following are items of current expenditures for 1876:
Police Department .................................. $22,383 90
Fire Department ................................... 28,542 51
Repairs and sprinkling streets ................... 23,499 11
Lighting streets and City Hall ................... 24,115 43
Hospital, &c ...................................... 6,130 16
Public grounds and buildings ................... 7,363 02
Miscellaneous (salaries city officers, etc.) .... 28,322 09

Total ............................................. $140,356 22

The expenses of the public schools during the year were .................. $122,483 87

The city has paid all accruing interest on bonds and holds a handsome surplus in the treasury.

The University of California.

The University of California is located at Berkeley, the most northerly suburb of Oakland, situated about four and one-half miles from the city, and is reached by a horse railway from Oakland, and by ferry and steam railroad from San Francisco. That the site was well chosen may be seen by the following from the (manuscript) report of Professor Soule.

"The diversified character of the surface brings into use all the principles of surveying and topography. It is in area 200 acres, is watered by numerous springs in the hills. With the spring water and surface water saved, the grounds can be thoroughly irrigated throughout the year, and made to blossom as the rose. The lower portion of the grounds is flat and moist, throughout the year, and will nourish such trees, flowers and shrubs as require such soil. Then there is a higher plateau, upon which the various buildings have been or are to be located, forming the campus proper. Beyond, toward the Mt. Diablo range, the ground rises into hills, the highest of which is 884 feet above tide water, and 584 feet above the base of the south college. The average height of the tract is 400 feet above tide water. The hilly portion could be well utilized for forestry. The university is supplied with water from a reservoir of 38,000 gallons capacity, situated at the foot of Strawberry Canyon, and at an elevation of 205 feet above the basement of the south college. It will carry water entirely over any building contemplated. Strawberry creek is for a large portion of the year a beautifully clear stream; during the winter it discharges an enormous quantity of water, and runs between steep banks ten to fifteen feet in depth, and with a span of from 30 to 100 feet. Along it are found many shady, quiet nooks, gracious to the scholar, philosopher and naturalist. The soil of the lower portion of the site is a deep rich adobe, capable of being wrought into a soil of great productiveness; on the plateau it is a lighter kind; on the hills there is a thin soil of decomposed shale rock, etc. It would be difficult to find within so small an area as the University site a spot with so many varieties and capabilities in the way of soils, irrigation and exposure. The view, too, is magnificent. Facing the Golden Gate, the eye takes in the whole peninsula at a sweep, with its great mart of commerce, its shipping, and the bold yet lovely islands that deck the bay, while to the eastward the towering hills afford a fine background of relief to the eye, as it turns from the extended plain below."

The Constitution of the State requires the legislature to provide for the maintenance of a university, and in March, 1868, a law was passed, creating and organizing the University of California. The State appropriated $200,000 from the sale of tide lands, as part of the Endowment Fund. A "Seminary and Public Building Fund," amounting to $100,000, existed, which was made another part of the endowment, while the old College of California, which had been in existence since 1855, and had accumulated a large property, transferred it entire to the University; this latter property was valued at $120,000. Congress had already made a donation of 150,000 acres of land for the establishment of an Agricultural College in California. Nothing could be more pertinent or proper than making the Agricultural College a part and portion of the University, and it was done. This combination of circumstances gives the University a very handsome Endowment Fund, which will be largely increased from the advance in real estate held by it under the grants. Two large and commodious buildings were occupied, though not fully completed, at the commencement of the college year, in September, 1873.

The south hall is of brick, one hundred and fifty-two feet in length, average width fifty-six feet, and four stories in height. It contains thirty-four-rooms, six of which are thirty-two by forty-eight in size.

The north hall is built of wood, is one hundred and sixty-six feet in length, average width sixty feet and four stories in height. It is divided into twenty-eight rooms. The assembly room is forty-three by fifty-eight feet, and the philosophical lecture room thirty-six by fifty-eight feet. The cost was $357,000.

The institution embraces seven distinct colleges, as follows: Scientific, Agriculture, Mechanics, Engineering, Chemistry, Mining and Medicine.

In the College of Letters the Degree conferred is that of
A. B.; in the College of Science, Bachelor of Philosophy, and in the College of Medicine, M. D.

College of Agriculture.—Instruction is given by experimental and illustrated lectures, recitations, essays and class discussions, and in the practical illustration of principles upon the University grounds.

College of Mechanics.—This college educates mechanical engineers and machinists. Advanced classes are instructed in civil engineering to the extent necessary for the purposes of this college, including Mathematics, Physics and Theoretical Mechanics. But the chief object will be to teach Applied or Industrial Mechanics; to show how the forces of nature are employed for industrial purposes; and to discuss the nature of the different constructions or machines contrived by human ingenuity. Special attention is given to Industrial Drawing, with view to thorough education in the principles of construction of machinery.

College of Mining.—In this college are given courses of lectures on Chemistry, Metallurgy, Geology, Mineralogy and Engineering. The laboratories are ample to conduct the most refined investigation.

College of Engineering.—The object of this college is to give thorough instruction in those studies which pertain to the profession of a civil engineer. In the advanced years instruction is also given in Physics, Geology, Zoology, and in certain literary branches, including Modern Languages, History and Political Economy.

College of Letters.—The College of Letters maintains two courses, the Classical and the Literary. The former is identical with the general course of studies in the great colleges of the Eastern States and England. The latter affords a most complete and thorough training in its special studies.

Applicants for admission should be at least sixteen years of age, and bring satisfactory testimonials. Young ladies as well as young men are received as students. There is no charge whatever for tuition.

The number of students now attending the University is reported in the annual catalogue as follows: Seniors 27, Juniors 39, Sophomores 103, Freshmen 98, and other students in special courses 25.

College of Medicine.—Is held at Toland Hall, in San Francisco, and affords ample opportunities for acquiring the highest degree of excellence in the theories of the profession.

Classical and English School.

George Frederic Degen, A. M., Principal; F. Paget, A. M., Instructor in Modern Languages.
This School has been removed to extensive and convenient rooms, at 1420 San Pablo avenue.
The special aim of the School is to prepare students for the University; but younger pupils will also be received and carefully trained in a Primary or Grammar School course.
The system of instruction pursued is based upon careful explanation of principles, frequent reviews, and steady and persistent drill. It is believed that by this system the pupil will make, in the end, more rapid progress, and with more lasting results.

The particular attention of parents is called to the monthly reports, which are detailed statements of each student's deportment and progress in studies. The Principal is always happy to confer with parents in regard to their sons, that he may successfully co-operate with them in forming in the latter a high standard of both scholarship and manhood.

This School was established by Kirk W. Brier. The present principal received a most thorough education at Howard University, and is considered a most successful instructor. This School is deservedly popular. A large number of youths are annually fitted for the University at this educational establishment.

California Military Academy.

Rev. David McClure, Principal.

Located on east side of Telegraph avenue near Prospect avenue. The military system of drilling and discipline has been adopted to secure physical culture, promptness, presence of mind and its attendant results.

Golden Gate Academy.

Located on Academy Hill near Telegraph avenue. This institution receives students of both sexes, either as boarders or day scholars. J. N. Haskins, Principal.

Mills Seminary.

Located at the foot of the San Pablo Range, five miles from Oakland. An institution devoted to the education of young ladies. Rev. C. T. Mills, Principal.

St. Joseph's Academy.

Fifth, between Madison and Jackson streets. Under charge of Brother Hosea. This is an admirably conducted school, devoted to the education of boys. The premises are commodious, and a large number of our youth are receiving a thorough practical education there. Pupils are received either for day instruction or as boarders. It is deservedly popular, being under the management of the most careful and efficient instructors.
Convent of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart.

Located near the head of Lake Merritt on Webster street. A boarding school for young ladies. Under the patronage of the Most Rev. M. King, Pastor of Oakland.

Pacific Theological Seminary.

Located on Academy Hill. Rev. J. A. Benton, D. D., Professor of Sacred Literature. Rev. George Mooar, Professor of Theology.

St. Mary’s Academy.

St. Mary’s Free School.

Home School for Young Ladies.

Miss H. A. Field, Principal, 523 Hobart street.

State Deaf and Dumb, and Blind Asylum.

This institution is located near the State University at Berkeley. The farm consists of one hundred and thirty acres, eighty acres of which are on the hills fronting the bay. Pure water is supplied by hillside springs, and the elevated site insures the purest of air. Altogether, a better location could not have been chosen. On the 17th of January, 1875, the beautiful and costly stone building occupied by the institution was destroyed by fire, and the exigencies of the case, with more than a hundred helpless unfortunates to shelter and provide for, were indeed great. But the spirit of energy, coupled with that of benevolence, which inspires the citizens of Alameda County, found means to build a temporary structure without delay, and, as early as April 21st, three months from the time of the disaster, the school was again opened. Plans for permanent buildings have been made and are now being carried out. They provide for a series of structures including “Homes,” a central refectory, school house, etc., all of which, when completed, will accommodate two hundred and fifty pupils. The buildings are of the most substantial character, having concrete and stone foundations, brick superstructure, walls lined with hollow brick, slate roofs, all partitions of brick, and stone stair-cases throughout. Every arrangement to secure health and comfort has been made, while the system of segregation adopted will be not only a safeguard against fire, but do away with many evils connected with the herding of large numbers under one roof.

The course of studies pursued at this Institute is very nearly the same as that embraced in the public schools and in the seminaries, with the addition of music, which is taught the blind as a means of obtaining a livelihood. The institution is sustained by the State, but clothing and traveling expenses must be provided by the parents or guardians of the children, except in cases of extreme poverty, when a proper certificate from the County Judge will authorize the directors to supply clothing.

The management of the institution is entrusted to a Board of five Directors, appointed by the Governor. The present Board consists of the following named gentlemen: J. Mora Moss, J. A. Stanly, E. J. Crane, Oakland; H. H. Haight, Alameda, and D. D. Shattuck, San Francisco. Warring Wilkinson, Principal. H. A. Palmer, Secretary and Treasurer.

A committee of ladies, consisting of Mrs. Mary E. Brayton, Mrs. E. Green, Mrs. A. G. Gurnett, Mrs. Harriet A. Warring, Mrs. James A. Folger and Mrs. L. H. Cary visit the institution regularly and look into the domestic arrangements.

Instructors in the Deaf and Dumb Department: George B. Goodall, F. P. Fowler, Henry Frank and T. D'Estrella.

MORTUARY REPORT.

Oakland is, beyond a doubt, the most healthful city on the continent. The death rate in 1876 is shown by the official reports to be 13.71. The number of deaths in 1876 was 480, of which 271 were males and 209 females. Of the decedents 167 were born in Oakland, 67 in California, outside of Oakland; 131 in the United States outside of California, and 115 in foreign countries. 241 deaths were of children under 10 years of age.

There were 614 births, 313 males and 301 females. The excess of births over deaths was 134.

In no other American city is the death rate so small.

STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE.

The original town site of Oakland is laid out in blocks three hundred feet in length from east to west, and two hundred feet in breadth from north to south, streets running at right angles. This portion of the present city extends from the water line formed by Lake Merritt and San Antonio Creek on the east and south, to Fourteenth street on the north and Market street on the west. The territory bounded by Market street on the east and by San Francisco Bay on the west, has been laid out in general, though not universal conformity to the plan of Oakland proper. North of Fourteenth street and west of San Pablo avenue, there is a good degree of regularity; but to the eastward of San Pablo avenue the land has been subdivided according to the caprice of the owners of the numerous "tracts" which, from time to time, have been placed on the market in the shape of city lots. Hence, the streets in this part of the city have little continuity or regularity. The great thoroughfares of San Pablo and Telegraph avenues, and Market street, tri-sect the city diagonally, giving a triangular form to a large amount of real property. East Front street, which is the street lying on the westerly shore of Lake Merritt and San Antonio Creek, forms the initial point for numbering the houses on streets running westward therefrom, and South Front street forms the initial point for all streets running northwardly therefrom.

East Oakland, or Brooklyn, is laid out regularly. The numbering commences at First avenue, increasing towards the east, and at an imaginary extension of South Front street increasing towards the north. Fifty numbers are allotted to each block throughout the entire city, with a few special exceptions. The plan is such that the numbers in each tier of blocks are identical throughout the city.

OAKLAND.

GEORGE FREDERIC DEGEN, A. M., Principal.
F. PAGET, A. M., Instructor in Modern Languages.

The special aim of the School is to prepare students of both sexes for the University. Younger pupils, (boys only) are also received and thoroughly trained in a Primary, or Grammar School course.

The system of instruction pursued is based upon careful explanation of principles, frequent reviews, and steady and persistent drill. It is believed that by this system the pupil will make, in the end, more rapid progress, and with more lasting results, than by any other.

TERMS:
PAYABLE INvariably IN advance,

Lower Forms, ............... $8.00 per month.
Upper " ................. 10.00 " "
Modern Languages, each... 2.00 " " extra.

HEALD'S

BUSINESS

COLLEGE

24 POST STREET, SAN FRANCISCO.

The Leading Commercial School on the Coast.

E. P. HEALD, President.

F. C. WOODBURY, Secretary.

The object of this school is to educate for the practical affairs of life. In addition to a complete and systematic course of business training in matters connected with the English branch, French, German, and Spanish, in civil engineering, surveying, drafting, telegraphy, photography, etc.; thus affording a most useful course of instruction for men, boys, men, and ladies, and rendering this school

THE MODEL COLLEGE OF THE PACIFIC.

The aim of the school is to educate for business, and book-keepers and book-keepers, but also to impart such a broad culture as is not given in commercial schools. The new plan of being a commercial man should be a preparation for life, not for work. In this design of the school, by its comprehensive course of instruction, and by training in mercantile affairs and correct business habits, to render its graduates distinguished in both gentlemanly ways and good business principles, as well as noted for industry, perseverance, and accuracy.

The Business Course.

This will include Bookkeeping, Merchants' Ledgers, Simple and Double Entry, embracing practical work in Kinlining, Journals, Bookkeeping, Accounting, etc.; Business, Bookkeeping, etc.; Arithmetic, including abbreviations for commercial use; in use, good penmanship: Knowledge, with complete analysis and movement exercises; Commerce, covering all the different forms with rules for use of capital letters and punctuation: Method & last, with lectures on all the important topics: English, including reading, grammar, dictation, composition that exercises rhetoric, etc; French, German, and Spanish: Drawing in various forms, Business Forms of every variety: Actual Practice in all kinds of business; Lectures on bookkeeping, commerical business customs, political economy, and various topics calculated to impart to the pupil a taste for literary pursuits in business affairs, and reliability of character.

The Plan of Instruction.

Instructs both class exercises and funeral for practice. By the plan our pupils are advanced very rapidly, and greater progress is shown. The average in two years is one year. By our system the students will never stand in one place, but are always moving forward, and is never obliged to remain idle waiting for needed instruction.

Theory and Practice.

Courses are combined in such a manner that the one exercises and the other. No course of mere theory can be relied on as a training for business affairs. The score comprehends all the practical workings of the commercial house, and in business office, By the practical plan of operation the pupil is prepared to undertake the same upon entering business, and the practical marks, as well as the theoretical, being placed upon the first day of business statements and papers, writing up all the different forms of paper for the active life. In fact, our model system of actual business practice has been practiced by all who have taken in working. The most complete practical plan of instruction ever invented into any school in the country—a fact which is amply proved by the business capacity of our graduates.

Rates of Tuition.

The rates of tuition for the business course, at above, are as follows:

Full Business Course, 6 mos. 875 | Evening Sessions, 6 mos. 845

" " " 8 " 50 | " " " 3 " 25

" " 1 mos. 20 | " " 1 mos. 10

Pupils will be received for special instruction in any branch at reasonable rates.

Hours of Instruction.

Day sessions will continue each week day, except Saturday, from 9 A.M. to 12 M. and from 1:30 to 4 P.M. Evening sessions will continue from 7 to 9 P.M., during eight months, extending from first of September to first of May the following year.

Further Information.

Full particulars regarding the school and its workings may be had at the office of the College, 24 Post Street, or by addressing

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.
The School-Room and Counting-Room joined upon a plan that secures to the student all the practical advantages of each. The operation a Banking House, with Checks, Drafts, Notes, Bills of Exchange, Certificates of Deposit, etc., fully illustrating the banking business.

The school-room is elegantly fitted up with Telegraphing, Jobbing, and Importing Emporiums, Commission and Forwarding Houses, Express and Post Offices.

SOME OF THE SPECIAL ADVANTAGES OF THIS SCHOOL

The attention given to gentlemanly manners and correct business habits, and the fact that its business course is restricted to Book-keeping, Penmanship and Arithmetic, but imparts much useful information, is the times now demand for a high position in the mercantile community.

The carefull discipline which is maintained at all times in the school, and the requirement that every pupil shall be prompt and punctual in attendance, as well as energetic and business-like in all work, are habits which are necessary to his future success.

The employment of only first-class teachers in every Department, and in sufficient numbers to give personal attention to every pupil.

A complete system of ACTUAL BUSINESS PRACTICE, by which pupils are fitted to enter the banking-house directly from the School.

The high standing of its graduates in the business community.

The pupils taken for securing positions for graduates in good business establishments.

The admission of pupils of both sexes and of any age, thus rendering young boys more widely self-denominated with pupils of an older age.

In having the largest and best ventilated and arranged school-rooms, and the largest yearly attendance of any Business Training School in America.

The immediate identification of parents in case of absence of any pupil, and the pains taken to keep them informed of the progress and departure of their sons.

The fact that each pupil becomes an elegant business penman before graduating.

The Departments of Modern Languages and Drawing, in which pupils can receive instruction without extra charge.

The complete Department of Telegraphy, in which students are fitted to enter at once upon their duties after graduation.

Finally, its freedom from disadvantages of public schools in its exclusion of boys of a bad character, and the gentlemanly deportment required from all pupils; in having no change of teachers; in giving full and ample instruction, and the consequent rapid advancement of each pupil; in the course of instruction being so arranged as to allow the student to enter at any time; in having no vacations to compel the pupil to continue finishing his course; and in the honest endeavor of every teacher to promote the best interests of each pupil in the school.

DEPARTMENT OF TELEGRAPHY.

This department is a complete institution of itself, and affords facilities for learning telegraphy rapidly and thoroughly. Instruction in this branch is of very little avail unless special pains are taken to fit pupils for operators from the beginning; and a glance at our department will convince any one that we have the facilities for so doing.

INSTRUCTION FOR LADIES:

Ladies are admitted into all departments of the College on the same terms and conditions as young men.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Pupils can enter the College at any time, and pursue their studies to graduation without interruption. As far as it is to do so. Pupils not sufficiently advanced for the Business Course can enter for instruction in the English Department.

Modern Languages and Drawing are optional studies, and may be taken or not at the student's option.

No extra charge will be made for them when pursued.

The discipline of the school is very careful, in order to impart such habits as shall conduz to the success of our graduates.

Visitors will be always welcome at the College, as we are pleased to have the public inform themselves of our school.

The information on any point not fully understood, do not fail to call at the school, or to write to

HEALD'S COLLEGE JOURNAL.

Published monthly by the College and containing full particulars regarding the Course of Study. Also, a large amount of interesting general reading, may be had free of charge, either at Office of Post Street, or by addressing

PHOTOGRAPHIC

EYE REST

Since the day Daguerre first discovered the beautiful art of Photography to the present time, there has been one of the most important features to success overlooked. It is true, our art has been worked up to great perfection, and California today rivals the world in its beautiful productions.

The CHROMATIC PHOTOGRAPHS so recently introduced by I. W. TABER & CO., have reached a perfection never before attained. They now have the pleasure of introducing the PHOTOGRAPHIC EYE REST, the first and only invention ever exhibited that will influence the subject to retain a natural and pleasing expression to the countenance, while the photograph is being taken. All who have patronized a Photograph Gallery have experienced the unpleasant feeling of being obliged to stare at some stationary picture or blank object while sitting for a negative. It brings tears to the eyes of some, and to many a forced, unnatural expression.

The Photographic Eye's Rest

Presents new and varied scenes before the eye every second, causing the subject to forget that they are living statues, for the time being.

Every person that contemplates having a picture taken should give this valuable invention a trial at

Directorio Comercial Internacional

ESPANOL E INGLES,

De la Costa del Pacifico.

Los Editores aprovechan esta oportunidad para anunciar al público que han logrado hacer los arreglos preliminares para llevar á cabo la publicación de una obra con el título de Directorio Comercial Internacinal Español e Ingles de la Costa del Pacifico, y que ya varias personas inteligentes y energicas se ocupan en hacer solicitudes y recoger datos para que la obra tenga la importancia debida. El pensamiento de esta servá comprensivo, pues contendrá, en un orden metódico, listas de los comerciantes y fabricantes de todos los puertos principales y de las ciudades y pueblos del interior, cuyo comercio se comunica por medio de los puertos del Pacifico desde el de Victoria al Norte hasta Panama al Sur, incluyendo Victoria, (Colombia Britanica) Portland, (Oregon) San Francisco y todos los pueblos y ciudades importantes de los Estados Mejicanos, como son:

SONORA, SINALOA,

DURANGO, JALISCO, COLIMA,

BAJA CALIFORNIA, y GUERRERO,

y los Estados Centro-Americanos, como:

GUATEMALA, SAN SALVADOR, HONDURAS,

COSTA RICA y NICARAGUA.

Las riquezas agrícolas y mineras de cada uno de los referidos Estados serán tratadas por medio de artículos interesantes y razonados, escritos por personas inteligentes que serán enviadas expresamente á todos esos puntos con el objeto de adquirir informes completos y detallados, sobre todo aquello que ofrezca interés, tanto á los fabricantes y comerciantes del mundo, como al empreendedor capitalista.

También se hallará en el Directorio informes completos y exactos concernientes al terreno, clima y productos naturales de cada Estado, como así mismo estadísticas de exportaciones e importaciones, manufacturas y minas. También contendrá una descripción de todos los pueblos y ciudades, el comercio, la industria, las manufacturas y ventajas generales de cada uno de ellos. Todos los artículos descriptivos serán publicados en español e inglés, en páginas alternadas.

Uno de los objetos principales de la obra es el de fomentar los intereses de los comerciantes y fabricantes, poniéndoles al alcance de datos fidéligos de manera que puedan ponerse en una comunicación que les abra el camino y les dé impulso á sus giros y negocios y puedan formar exacto juicio de las riquezas y necesidades materiales de la privilegiada y más rica mitad del Continente Norte-Americano.

Esta obra, con especialidad, será tambien de grande utilidad, porque auxiliará, por el íntimo conocimiento que se adquiera, á que se estrechen mas y mas las relaciones comerciales entre los pueblos Anglo e Hispano-Americanos del Pacifico.

ALAMEDA DIRECTORY.

THE TOWN OF ALAMEDA.

This beautiful suburban town lies on the south bank of the San Antonio creek, and is washed by the waters of the Bay of San Francisco upon the west. Alameda has long been noted for its delightful climate. It is a favorite resort for people seeking to escape from the fierce winds which prevail in San Francisco during six months of the year. Lying so far to the southward of the Golden Gate, the blasts which sweep in through that entrance and torture the residents upon the peninsula and the opposite shores of the bay do not reach it, except as gentle zephyrs, just brisk enough to give an invigorating tone to the atmosphere. Incorporated as a town in 1872, Alameda enjoyed a steady accretion of the best class of population, until in 1876 what had been but a moderate current became a tidal wave. The present volume shows that the population has fully doubled within a year. Large tracts of land have been subdivided into building lots, many new streets and avenues opened, and hundreds of houses erected. Enjoying, as Alameda does, so equable a climate, it is but natural that seekers after health or retirement should make their homes within her borders, but the more sanguine believer in her future claim for her, eventually, importance as a commercial and manufacturing city, and certainly there exists no reason why their speculations may not be fulfilled.

Communication with San Francisco by railroad and ferry is frequent, and the monthly commutation fare is the same as between San Francisco and Oakland. Excellent church and school privileges abound, full details of which appear in the ensuing pages.

The population of Alameda is fully six thousand, and at its present rate of increase it will soon require a city charter for the more extended purposes of municipal government. It is confidently predicted that by the year 1880 Alameda will have a population of twenty thousand, and rank as one of the leading cities of the State.

RUSSIAN TRADE MARK.

VICTORY

DR. LEON HERSHBERG,

Of MOSCOW, RUSSIA, begs to inform the inhabitants of Oakland and vicinity, that he has established himself at the

CORNER OF EIGHTH AND WASHINGTON STREETS,

In this city, where he will keep a constant supply of the Celebrated Russian Balsamic Bitters.

This Bitters is a pure compound of herbs, roots and flowers, that grow in the great steppes in the Russian Empire and in Italy. It has gained a vast renown for its merits and good qualities through the whole empire; and is the best remedy for Headache, Biliousness, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, General Debility, Liver Complaint, Purifies the Blood, produces a Tender and Smooth Skin, instantly relieves all kinds of Colics, Cramps of the Stomach or Bowels, will stop Diarrhoea or Dysentery immediately. Constipation will be regulated by it in a natural way. Will stop all kinds of Fevers, as Fever and Ague, Intermitent, etc., and will restore rest to those who are sleepless and nervous. No Family should be without it. Few Equal, none Excel! Try it! Try it! Try it! As we stake our reputation on this Bitters, call and sample the same. Also we keep a full line of Pure Choice Imported and Native Wines, Liquors, Ales, etc., for Medicinal and Family Use, to which we cordially invite the attention of the public. We guarantee our goods all we claim for them, and ask only a trial to prove the same.

Oakland, Cal., May, 1877.

LEON HERSHBERG & CO.,
Sole Proprietors of the Russian Balsamic Bitters.

P. S.—All goods delivered to any part of the city Free. Druggists and the Trade supplied at reasonable rates.

Agents for this publication have been engaged in canvassing and gathering information since January last, in Mexico and on the Southern Coast, including the States of

Sonora, Sinaloa, Durango
Jalisco, Colima, Lower California,
Guerrero, and Cent. America, Costa Rica,

And the cities of San Francisco, Portland, and Victoria, V. I.

The Agricultural and Mineral resources of the above States, and all information of value to the Manufacturer, Merchant and Capitalist, will be given in both English and Spanish.

It will contain a complete Classified Business Directory of all Manufacturers, Importers, Wholesale Dealers, Shipping and Commission Merchants, Hotels, etc., of the principal cities of the Coast, from Victoria, to Panama. The business headings will be in English and Spanish.

The principal object of this work is to forward the interests of the Merchant and Manufacturer, by giving exact information concerning all important Commercial and Manufacturing centres, and to thereby advance the Commercial relations between the American and Spanish-American cities of the Pacific.

Prospecto
--- Del ---
Directorio Comercial Internacional
ESPAÑOL E INGLÉS,
De la Costa del Pacífico.

Los Editores aprovechan esta oportunidad para anunciar al público que han logrado hacer los arreglos preliminares para llevar á cabo la publicación de una obra con el título de Directorio Comercial Internacional Español e Inglés de la Costa del Pacífico, y que ya varias personas inteligentes y energéticas se ocupan en hacer solicitudes y recojer datos para que la obra tenga la importancia debida. El pensamiento de esta servía comprensivo, pues contendrá, en un orden metódico, listas de los comerciantes y fabricantes de todos los puertos principales y de las ciudades y pueblos del interior, cuyo comercio se comunica por medio de los puertos del Pacífico desde el de Victoria al Norte hasta Panamá al Sur, incluyendo Victoria, (Colombia Británica) Portland, (Oregon) San Francisco y todos los pueblos y ciudades importantes de los Estados Méjicanos, como son:

SONORA, SINALOA,
DURANGO, JALISCO, COLIMA,
BAJA CALIFORNIA, y GUERRERO,
y los Estados Centro-Americanos, como:
GUATEMALA, SAN SALVADOR, HONDURAS,
COSTA RICA y NICARAGUA.

Las riquezas agrícolas y mineras de cada uno de los referidos Estados serán tratadas por medio de artículos interesantes y razonados, escritos por personas inteligentes que serán enviadas expresamente á todos esos puntos con el objeto de adquirir informes completos y detallados, sobre todo aquello que ofrezca interés, tanto á los fabricantes y comerciantes del mundo, como al emprendedor capitalista.

También se hallará en el Directorio informes completos y exactos concernientes al terreno, clima y productos naturales de cada Estado, como así mismo estadísticas de exportaciones e importaciones, manufacturas y minas.

También contendrá una descripción de todos los pueblos y ciudades, el comercio, la industria, las manufacturas y ventajas generales de cada uno de ellos. Todos los artículos descriptivos serán publicados en español e inglés, en páginas alternadas.

Uno de los objetos principales de la obra es el de fomentar los intereses de los comerciantes y fabricantes, poniéndoles al alcance de datos fidedignos de manera que puedan ponerse en una comunicación que les abra el camino y les dé impulso á sus giros y negocios y puedan formar exacto juicio de las riquezas y necesidades materiales de la privilegiada y más rica nidad del Continente Norte-Americano.

Esta obra, con especialidad, será tambien de grande utilidad, porque auxiliará, por el íntimo conocimiento que se adquiera, á que se estrechen mas y mas las relaciones comerciales entre los pueblos Anglo e Hispano-Americanos del Pacífico.

Precio: 5 Pesos el ejemplar.
